Hi Sarah,

Anne-Marie and I look to be clear on the afternoons of Jan. 11 and Jan. 12. Can we aim for one of these for the follow up?

Hope everyone's having a nice holiday season.

Thanks,

Jerome

Please tell me what week we're talking about in January (week of Jan. 11 or week of Jan. 18?), so that Anne-Marie and I can look at our schedules and give you some available times.

Thanks,

Jerome

Hello everyone,

Due to the proximity to the holiday (and quite a few people being out of town) the meeting that was scheduled for tomorrow (23 December, 2015 at 2:00 PM) will be rescheduled to January.

Sorry that I didn't notify you earlier, we were trying our hardest to keep the date, but sadly in the end it simply didn't work. I'll provide information in the near future on the next meeting (shooting for the first full week of January).

Once again, sorry for being this late in canceling... and for having to cancel again, for that matter.

Here is hoping that the third time is the charm.

LoL, that makes WAY more sense! I'm holding off on telling anyone times until I get the OK from DoT.

BTW – to kill 2 birds with one email – there was a reason I didn't reply to the "homeless encampment" people... I figured it probably had to do with relaxed enforcement during the holiday. I drove through the 4 different main overpasses in the Dell this morning (Argyle, Ivar, Holly, and Cahuenga & the 101) and not ONE homeless person. So yeah, the "transients" apparently lived up their title.

I checked all 4 major bridges that fall in or around the Hollywood Dell (that's why I listed them for you). There was what looked to be a rolled up sleeping bag stashed behind one pillar of the overpass at the Argyle on the North side, but no people under the bridge. There was nothing on the sidewalk on EITHER side of the Franklin. There were 2 homeless people at that site, but they were away from the bridge to the east. There were ZERO other signs of encampments at the other bridge passes.

I guess I didn't check the Argyle and 101 SOUTH of Franklin or the 101 pass south on Gower (both CD 13). I also didn't check the overpass at Odin and the 101 (as it's rather removed from the Dell.)

Most of these emails read to me like one person telling others to write emails or providing an example that people are copying (heck, in Todds first email to me directly, he says "I have also included a photo of 81 neighbors thanking my comment to show the support for this in the neighborhood.")

If you'd like, I'll go re-drive every overpass and (now) triple check every one to make sure they are still empty on my way up to the Vista (to talk to enforcement there).

I think it's the one that's south of Franklin, that's why I thought it might be split with 13 and Dan Halden may have put it on their list. I think he's back in the office this week. You can also reach out of one of the constituents for more specifics

I checked all 4 major bridges that fall in or around the Hollywood Dell (that's why I listed them for you). There was what looked to be a rolled up sleeping bag stashed behind one pillar of the overpass at the Argyle on the North side, but no people under the bridge. There was nothing on the sidewalk on EITHER side of the Franklin. There were 2 homeless people at that site, but they were away from the bridge to the east. There were ZERO other signs of encampments at the other bridge passes.

I guess I didn't check the Argyle and 101 SOUTH of Franklin or the 101 pass south on Gower (both CD 13). I also didn't check the overpass at Odin and the 101 (as it's rather removed from the Dell.)

Most of these emails read to me like one person telling others to write emails or providing an example that people are copying (heck, in Todds first email to me directly, he says "I have also included a photo of 81 neighbors thanking my comment to show the support for this in the neighborhood.")

If you'd like, I'll go re-drive every overpass and (now) triple check every one to make sure they are still empty on my way up to the Vista (to talk to enforcement there).

Did you check Franklin & Argyle? Just got another email this morning, that makes like 6 or 7 people. The LoL, that makes WAY more sense! I'm holding off on telling anyone times until I get the OK from DoT.

BTW -- to kill 2 birds with one email -- there was a reason I didn't reply to the "homeless encampment" people... I figured it probably had to do with relaxed enforcement during the holiday. I drove through the 4 different main overpasses in the Dell this morning (Argyle, Ivar, Holly, and Cahuenga & the 101) and not ONE homeless person. So yeah, the "transients" apparently lived up their title.

Hi Sarah,

Anne-Marie and I look to be clear on the

for one of these for the follow up?

Hope everyone's having a nice holiday season.

CANCELED

Hello everyone,

Due to the proximity to the holiday (and quite a few people being out of town) the meeting that was scheduled for tomorrow (23 December, 2015 at 2:00 PM) will be rescheduled to January.

Sorry that I didn't notify you earlier, we were trying our hardest to keep the date, but sadly in the end it simply didn't work. I'll provide information in the near future on the next meeting (shooting for the first full week of January).

Once again, sorry for being this late in canceling... and for having to cancel again, for that matter.

Here is hoping that the third time is the charm.
